

MONTENEGRO - Kotor Bay

Gorgeous, breathtaking, majestic, divine; however hefty your thesaurus, the brain-blowing beauty of the Bay of Kotor will leave you struggling for superlatives. Hemmed in by commanding cliffs and shape-shifting between rippling gulfs and sparkling straits, the cobalt cove even manages to defy geographic description: is it a fjord? A submerged canyon? It seems there's only one way to define Boka Kotorska: unmissable. Scattered with photogenic medieval towns admiring their reflections in peacock-blue inlets, the compact bay – or simply, 'Boka', as it's known in local parlance – is stitched together by a series of scenic, serpentine roads, making it easy to explore. On this tour you can explore Kotor, beautiful Perast and visit Our Lady of the Rocks.
